Urban, O. doctors have a Blue Book. Unless a patient's name is in the book he has to pay in advance.

Unless you know the number of sheets in each roll, you cannot measure quantity—the size or weight of a roll may deceive you.

You should look for quality of the paper first—always. Soft, clothlike toilet paper is more pleasant to use—safer, too.

Bungalow Oil Lamps

Very Special at $4.49

Lamp light for Summer nights is always practical and even when electricity or gas has been installed, the soft glow from an old fashioned lamp is often preferable. These lamps are complete for oil. High grade burners with central drafts and round wick founts assure steady flames.

The bases are modelled to closely resemble a famous type of pottery, and there is unusual richness in the soft blues, browns or splash glazes.

Japanese (bronze finish) founts give added decorative effects. The brown wicker shades are lined with various shades of silk. If bought at usual figures these lamps would be priced from $6.89 up to $8.89.

Immense Stocks of Summer Rugs---Mattings---Linoleums

Recent shipments have added to our large stock of floor-coverings, and, apart from the advantage of such wide selection, comparison of prices elsewhere will prove a convincing reason for securing your Summer carpetings at Macy's.

Novel Japanese Porch Rugs
 These rugs are novelties in America and were brought from Japan especially for R. H. Macy & Co. Water or dampness does not affect them, and as they are 1/2 inch thick they are much superior to other porch coverings. Woven from tightly twisted Japanese rush into eighteen-inch squares. These squares are sewn to make rugs of the following sizes. They may be had in natural color squares, or black and natural, green and natural and brown and natural.

4 ft. 6 in. x 7 ft. 6 in.	$10.14
6 ft. x 9 ft.	$16.24
7 ft. 6 in. x 10 ft. 6 in.	$23.74
9 ft. x 12 ft.	$32.50
9 ft. x 15 ft.	$40.50

Special sizes to order 79c per additional square.

Miles Standish Rag Rugs
 Woven in plain colors or mixed effects, with Colonial band borders across the ends. They are washable and reversible.

24x36 in.	59c	4 ft. x 7 ft.	$2.44
27x54 in.	98c	6 ft. x 9 ft.	$4.89
3 ft. x 6 ft.	$1.64	8 ft. x 10 ft.	$7.24
9 ft. x 12 ft.			$9.24

Hand Made Japanese Jute Rugs
 Richness of color and designs, typically Oriental, give these rugs much of the charm found in the finer Eastern fabrics. They are seamless, and the faces are of hand tied knots, manufactured of jute yarn in the exact manner of Oriental floor-coverings. Tones of rose, blue, tan, gold and green artistically combined.

36x63 in.	$1.98	4 ft. 6 in. x 7 ft. 6 in.	$4.24	6 ft. x 9 ft.	$6.89
8 ft. x 10 ft.	$10.24	9 ft. x 12 ft.	$13.74

ROOT BOOM IS BORN, NO BRASS BANDS MARK ITS ARRIVAL

Headquarters Opened at Manhattan Hotel to Aid His Fight for G. O. P. Nomination.

MENACE OF ROOSEVELT.

No Fear of Repetition of Roosevelt Bolt in Convention.

Roosevelt's announcement last week that he would not support Elihu Root resulted in the former Senator emerging from his retreat of silent aloofness and announcing himself definitely as a candidate. Two rooms with open doors on the eighth floor of the Manhattan Hotel labeled "Root Headquarters" spoke louder than words. The candidate himself was not in evidence, but his managers, ex-Congressman John Dwight and Charles M. Pepper, were there saying to all comers that their man was in the race, no matter what the Colonel might say or do.

This is the only headquarters of Presidential candidates with a genuine label on it. The other booms have been gum-shoeing around or carrying on a whispering campaign under cover. Even the Colonel still poses as an editor, and makes his city quarters in the Metropolitan Magazine office.

"We have nothing to offer but our candidate and his eminent qualifications for the Presidency," said Mr. Pepper at the Root rooms. There was not a campaign cigar, nor a picture of the candidate, nor even a bit of printed literature around the rooms. No press agents have been engaged and no batteries of typewriters are clicking off letters to "canned" mailing lists.

"This is merely an evidence of Mr. Root's candor," added Mr. Pepper, "and a place where Republicans coming to New York from different parts of the country can find an open door and a place to talk politics. We are not intending to conduct the ordinary kind of a campaign. Mr. Root's acknowledged ability to meet the demands of national crisis commend him to all citizens."

The menace of Roosevelt is bringing Republican political factions together as allies against him. With the Chicago National Convention only a month off and uncertainty prevailing everywhere, a general alarm has been sounded in many States.

This week marks the beginning of a series of private conferences and interchange of views between leaders of the regulars, East and West, to bring about understandings and prevent T. R. from stampeding the convention.

"Is Roosevelt going to appear before the Chicago convention as a menace and threaten it with a bolt unless they nominate him?" was asked to-day of Frederick C. Tanner, State Chairman of the New York Republican organization.

"Certainly," replied the Chairman. "I never have had any doubt that he would assume that attitude since last January. But when the Colonel finds himself, as he will, up against a cold convention at Chicago, he will not go as far as he did in 1912. There will be no repetition of that campaign. He may threaten, but he won't repeat."

"I think Roosevelt is sliding backward. His boom got a bad dent in Massachusetts, one that practically settled it. That was a straight-out fight in the region where he was strongest and he was beaten. This has had effect in the west and leads to the reason that if the Colonel cannot carry the east where he is supposed to have best backing, then there is no chance for him in the west."

"I find no diminution now in the Hughes movement. There was a little indication recently of annoyance and irritation because he would not say anything about his candidacy, but that has now passed away and the political undertow is running strongly for Hughes in many parts of the country. But as yet there is no definite lining up, no programme for the nomination of any particular candidate."

"What is New York State going to do?" was asked.

"That is still to be determined," replied the chairman. "I know of no meeting yet called of the delegates. Whether one will be held before we get to the Chicago convention I cannot say, but it may be when a line of policy is determined upon. The men who are in position of influence to call such a meeting have not, as yet, formed their opinions as to what is the advisable thing to do and when to do it, looking forward not merely to the June convention but still further ahead to the November election. That is the event on which our efforts should centre, and we want the man who can win then."

THE UNKISSED.

"Cross between heroes and durned fools," is the way class President described seventeen members of Muskogee (Okla.) High School senior class who have never been kissed.

Brazil's Foreign Minister to Resign.
 RIO JANEIRO, May 1.—It is announced that Dr. Lauro Muller will resign as Minister of Foreign Affairs of Brazil on account of ill health. His place in the Cabinet will be taken by Souza Dantas, now Brazilian Minister to Argentina. Mr. Dantas has been appointed Under Secretary of State Dr. Muller has done more, perhaps, than any other man in Brazil toward shaping the republic's foreign policy.

Sheriff and Rancher Killed by Horse Thieves.
 FORT COLLINS, Col., May 1.—Frank Roach, Sheriff of Cheyenne, Wyo., and Nels Nelson, a rancher, were shot and killed early to-day thirty-five miles northwest of Fort Collins, Col. while leading a posse hunting horse thieves. The robbers escaped. Roach and Nelson had watched the camp of the thieves all night, planning to rush it at dawn.

"MAYOR A CRIMINAL," SAYS FATHER FARRELL; MITCHEL IN HOT REPLY

Priest Is "Romancing Again," Declares City Executive in New Recriminations.

"Father Farrell's disregard for the truth, which he has so well demonstrated, shows he is no doubt romancing in this instance," said Mayor Mitchell to-day in reply to the latest attack on him by Rev. William B. Farrell, rector of the Church of St. Peter and Paul, Brooklyn.

"In a statement issued under Father Farrell's name this morning he adds this chapter to the controversy brought about by the tapping of his telephone wire by members of the Police Department:

"Yes, a crime has been committed.

and J. P. Mitchell and J. A. Kingsbury are the criminals."

Father Farrell's latest contribution followed a statement made in City Hall by Mayor Mitchell last Friday. It was as follows: "The Rev. William B. Farrell may have good reason to be disturbed over any inquiry that may be made into his past."

To this Father Farrell replied: "I have lived in this city all my life, and have been a priest of my church for twenty-five years, and am now a target for this insult from the accident-prone as our first city official."

Insinuating very strongly that Mayor Mitchell is endeavoring to find some scandal connected with his past life, Father Farrell adds: "A few days ago, an old classmate at college and a life-long friend both phoned and wrote me that a citizen known to us both had asked him if he knew anything in my college career that could be used to my discredit. He said he was acting for the Mayor, who wanted the information. My friend said he knew of nothing."

"On the whole, I am indebted to Mr. Mitchell. This insinuating and insulting remark of his plainly shows his lack of honor and qualification for the office he so obviously misfits."

Replying to Father Farrell's story of what a classmate had told him, Mayor Mitchell said: "I don't believe any man ever told that to Father Farrell. It seems very nervous over this supposed investigation of his
